

Bernard "Bernie" Kallman

November 13, 2013

Of Milwaukee, passed away unexpectedly on November 13, 2013 at the age of 73. Loving husband of Cheryl, dear father of Gregory (Amy) Kallman, Gina (Jim) Schulz, beloved stepfather of Courtney Libal and Hayley Lear (Thomas Dolgaard), cherished grandfather of Nicholas, Hollin, Jimmy, Jeff, Lizzie, Ian and Owen and great-grandfather of James and Eli. Further survived by sisters Yvonne (Dan) May and Elaine Weingarten of California. Preceded in death by his dear mother, Dorothy, and brother Lionel. Bernie was a graduate of Lincoln High School and Santa Monica City College. He served in the military, was a photographer for the Hughes Corporation, and an executive at North Shore Dodge in Milwaukee. Perhaps his greatest professional joy was running his own real estate business, which he continued to run until the time of his death. He was a man of many talents. As a young boy he became a ventriloquist, under the mentorship of Bob Neller. He performed at many functions and with some celebrities. He was also a clever cartoonist, artist, and handyman. Bernie had a love of architecture and antiques, spending many days visiting museums, art galleries and antique shops. He loved historic homes and owned the Robert Machek home for several years where he was presented with the Cream City Brick Award. A nice summer day would find him riding down Lincoln Memorial Drive in his red 1927 replica Bugatti. He was loved and respected as a good, kind, man of his word. He had a very wonderful sense of humor and infectious laugh. Although he was a man of few words, he touched many lives with his presence. He will be greatly missed. Visitation

“Bernardo as I called him was a wonderful wonderful man. He & Cheryl were are neighbors for years & Bernie & I had many important talks over our fence. He watched our house like a hawk when we were out of town & even when we were home he pointed out problems. He had the most beautiful blue eyes & wonderful smile. Everyone who met Bernie & Cheryl @ our parties thought they were a perfect match & both so interesting due to their love & appreciation of interesting, old historic items. Visiting their various homes was like visiting a museum. It's hard to believe I won't ever get to see my friend Bernardo & those baby blue eyes of his, his smile & get a hug again. My heart goes out to the family and you are all in my ( our) thoughts & prayers. Tim &
