“ Dear Sharon, Nick, Chris, and all of Brian's wonderful family, I am deeply saddened to learn of Brian's passing. He was a truly wonderful person - kind, wise, hard working, funny, intelligent, generous, and always willing to help others. He had the biggest, brightest smile, and it was rarely missing from his face. I remember several times, both in college and afterwards, when I was trying to fix something or build something, Brian was always the first person I would call for advice. He was always willing to help, even when he was driving somewhere across the country after a long, long day. I will forever treasure my memories of Brian, spending many days and evenings in high school hanging out at your house, and even being invited to stay there years later when I was passing through town. I always looked forward to seeing Brian, and I had been hoping to meet up with him in Portland, Me. I know he is already missed by those he loved tremendously, and words cannot fill the void he had left in our hearts. I hope that you, his family, can take comfort in knowing how much he loved you all, and how proud of you all he was, especially his children. The world lost a great man, partner, father, and friend on Saturday. I know he will continue to watch over you all from above, and he will live on in your hearts. Please let me know if there is anything I can do from afar in this difficult time. Love,

“ Sharon, I'm so sorry for your loss. "Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow" Thinking of you, Gail (Debra Alpert-Frolkis"s sister)

“ Brian was a really sweet person. He was always welcoming, and greeted you with a hug and smile. He will be greatly missed. My condolences to the family, may this poem bring some comfort to you... When I Am Gone When I am gone, release me - let me go I have so many things to see and do. You must not tie yourself to me with tears Be happy that we had so many years. I gave you love, you can only guess, how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love each have shown, but now it is time I traveled alone. So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must, then let your grief be comforted by trust It is only for a while that we must part so bless those memories within your heart. I will not be far away, for life goes on. so if you need me, call and I will come. Though you cannot see or touch me, I will be near And if you listen with your heart, you will hear All of my love around you, soft and clear. Then when you must come this way alone, I will greet you with a smile and "Welcome Home" Anon
