

Carol Caldwell Dooley

October 10, 2012

Carol Caldwell Dooley died peacefully on October 10, 2012 at the age of 81 from complications of Parkinson's disease. Carol was a resident of St. John's on the Lake in Milwaukee. She was born in Chicago on January 25, 1931 to Alfred and Virginia Caldwell. Carol was a graduate of the University of Illinois and received a Master's degree in Education from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. She is survived by her devoted husband, Dr. John E. Dooley, and six beloved children: Anne Dooley Wittenberg (Kurt); Mark Alfred Buchman (Louise), Joshua Thomas Buchman (Tracey), Mark Patrick Dooley, Rebekah Buchman Barsch (Brian), & Elizabeth Dooley Crane (Morgan). She is further survived by seven grandchildren; the joys of her life: Christopher Wittenberg (Emily), Daniel Wittenberg, Caitlin Wittenberg, Samuel Buchman, William Buchman, Caleb Barsch and Chloe Barsch, as well as numerous close friends. She was predeceased by her parents and her brother James Caldwell. Carol was a first grade teacher at Indian Hill School in River Hills for 10 years, an enthusiastic world traveler, a lover of music and art, and a steward of her father's architectural legacy, but above all an exemplary mother, wife and daughter. She was the glue that held two families together, and she will always be our ideal of love, patience, energy and tolerance. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests memorials to the National Parkinson's Foundation or the Lincoln Park Conservancy for the preservation of the Alfred Caldwell Lily Pool. Please indicate ""In Memory of Carol Dooley"" on the donation. Service & Reception InfoA memorial service will be held at St.

John's on the Lake on Sunday, October 14 at 3:00 p.m., followed by a brief reception.

Tribute Wall

DH

“ Dear family and friends, while circumstances did not permit us to be closer, she will always be Aunt Carol to us here in Cleveland. To Mark, Josh and Boo, as well as the Dooley family, you are in our thoughts and prayers. Much Love The Hines Family.

David Hines - October 12, 2012 at 12:00 AM