

Carol R. Jacobson

September 2, 2013

(nee Warwick) Born to Eternal Life on September 2, 2013, age 83 yrs. Residence Whitefish Bay. Beloved wife of Elmer J. Jacobson. Loving mother of Heidi L. (Tommy) Knudsen, Cynthia L. (Kevin) Mathews, Robert W. (Debra) Jacobson and Thomas J. Jacobson. Dear sister of Dorothy Rosenberg. Proud grandmother of Maiken, Nils, Lars, Stine, Krista (Mike), Mark (Lauren), Eric, Daniel (Cristina Serrano), Stefan, Kyle, Joseph, Cara, Emily and Allison. Great Grandmother of Jackson, Caroline and Lucas. Further survived by nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends. Raised in the Moravian Church in Green Bay, the dual focus of Carol's life was her Christian faith and her family. In the early 1950's she worked for several professors in the biochemistry department at UW-Madison. During the 1970's she inspired a local renaissance of quilting, teaching the art form at MATC from a curriculum she developed herself. Later she co-founded the Village Quilters in Whitefish Bay where she also taught, and in 1976 she designed and created an original quilt in celebration of the bicentennial. She was also an expert seamstress, rug braider, doll maker and creator of elaborate gingerbread villages during the annual Christmas holidays. Carol was employed throughout the 1980's at the Whitefish Bay Village Hall. The family would like to thank the staff at the Lighthouse House in Mequon. Service & Reception Info A Memorial Service will be held on Friday September 13th, at 2:00 PM at North Shore Presbyterian Church, 4048 N. Bartlett Ave., Shorewood, WI 53211. Private interment services were held in the Moravian Cemetery, Ashwaubenon, WI. If
