“ My best childhood friend, Connie moved in across the street when we were 4 years old. Our families spent many good times together. I regret not being able to see her again in our later years.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of Connie; sharing laughs and tears and eating many, many donuts! My heart aches right now for my dear, sweet friend, but I take comfort knowing she is comfortable and once again with Bob. Peace be with you all, Marti and Mike
