“ Don (and Sheila) would often come to the Lunney family reunion in Shawano. Don would park the car so they could unload their chairs, dogs and sun protection and then settle in for several hours sitting by the lake.

It was really apparent how much Don liked working at Home Depot and he was generous in sharing HD aprons and other swag he got working there. We were all grateful Don would allow Sheila to come with four tins of amazing homemade cookies. If it was me, I might have wanted to keep all those delicious cookies at home for myself. With love!
