

Dora Lavorini

November 9, 2012

Dora Lavorini, former resident of Iron Mountain and Hubbell, Mich, died Friday, Nov. 9, at the Milwaukee Catholic home in Milwaukee. Dora (Salsini) Lavorini was born in Hubbell, Mich., on Aug. 13, 1921, the daughter of the late Louis and Josephine Salsini. She graduated from Lake Linden-Hubbell High School and worked at the Pearce Furniture Store in Lake Linden for many years. She married Steve Lavorini in 1964 and they lived in Florida and Illinois before moving to Iron Mountain. Steve died in 2000. Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her sisters, Rose Liikala and Arlene Latva, and brothers Robert and Louis. She is survived by her brother Paul (Barbara) Salsini of Milwaukee; stepdaughter Donna Doberstein of Wilmette, Ill, and numerous nieces and nephews. Service & Reception Info There will be a Memorial Mass at 9 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 17, at Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, 500 Blaine St., Iron Mountain Internment will be private at Lakeside Cemetery in Hancock, Mich.