

Edith Jane Dingman

April 23, 2014

Passed peacefully on April 23, 2014, age 95 years. Resident of the Milwaukee Catholic Home, former 55 year resident of Whitefish Bay. Beloved wife of the late Stuart M. Dingman. Loving mother of Michael S. (Susan) Dingman, Caren E. (Robert) Hanson, Steven S. (Linda) Dingman and Jane M. (Dr. James) Kircher . Proud grandmother of Eric (Michele) Dingman, Andrew (Stephanie) Dingman, Erica (Dario) Elia, Jon (Megan) Hanson, Katie Kircher, Kevin Kircher. Great grandmother of Nicholas (Nikki) Dingman, triplets Julia, Samuel and Joshua Dingman, Ansley Elia. Further survived by other relatives and friends. Edith loved her family and always placed them first. She was a secretary for the Whitefish Bay School District for 36 years retiring in 1990. She loved to travel and was very active in the United Methodist Church of Whitefish Bay. Service & Reception InfoPlease greet Edith's family on Friday, May 16 at 10:00 AM at Wisconsin Memorial Park, Main Building Chapel, 13235 W. Capitol Drive, Brookfield 53005. followed by a Memorial Service at 11:00 AM. Inurnment to follow. In lieu of flowers, memorials appreciated to United Methodist Church of Whitefish Bay, Disabled American Vets, or a charity of your choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Caren, Bob and Family, Edith was such a warm, loving and remarkable person. I know she will be missed greatly by all who had the joy of knowing her. I am sure you feel blessed to have had 95 years with this beautiful person. We are thinking of you. Take care,
Neil & Adria Willenson

Neil Willenson - May 05, 2014 at 12:00 AM