Further survived by other relatives and friends. Trudy was a kindhearted and generous woman who was always quick to help others. She was a hard worker, a dedicated mother and grandmother, and a loving wife and partner. She helped out friends and family by babysitting, making meals, and she earned the affectionate title ""The Cake Lady"" for always baking at least two cakes every Sunday for church. She crocheted countless afghans for men and women at her nearby nursing home and supported third-world children for many years. Her vibrant sense of humor and infectious smile could light up a room, and she was always at her best when surrounded by family and friends. She is forever in our hearts and will be dearly missed.
