Spiritual Love

I Believe in Practicing Love...

As a Heart Healthy Way to Go About Life...

Like the Morning Sun or Warm Banana Bread, Shouldn't Everyone Know a Slice...

I Believe that Love is a Spirit...That Is Exercised From Within...It takes a Mindful Thinker to Master...A Willingness to Love So Someone Else you Love Can Win...

I Practice Love as a Healthy Way to See through other people's eyes...

To Respect they too have Thought & Perspective

To Respect they too know Emotion & Pain...

I Practice this Love without Charge or Expectations

As I Believe Love Should be Practiced for Free...

Perhaps if I don't Give up...One Day. A

Master of Love I'll Be...
