

Janet G. Holloway

January 22, 2011

Was taken from us on January 22, 2011, at 59 years of age. Jan leaves behind her loving partner of 21 years, Judy Bulluck, their children Tara and Damian (Anoma Whittaker) and grandchildren Landon, Latwon, Lauren, and Etienne. Jan is also survived by her sister, Angela (Carl) Wegner, brother Raymond (Cheri) Holloway and god-sister Jill Hilligoss, as well as an extended family of caring friends, colleagues and other relatives. Jan was preceded in death by her parents, Violet and Oliver Holloway, and younger brother, Larry. Jan earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and attended graduate school at Indiana University. An avid reader and fine writer, she found a rewarding career in the field of textbook publishing, where she worked for over 25 years, most recently for Cengage Learning. All who knew Jan will remember her innate kindness, integrity, intelligence and independent spirit. Those who loved her will never forget her generosity, sense of humor, enjoyment of really good conversation (as well as really good food and wine!) and the twinkle in her eye at an especially witty remark-whether yours or, more often, hers. But those closest to her will also remember the quieter moments-at sunset, fishingpole in hand, thermos of scotch, waiting for the elusive walleye....or at home, classical music in the background, child on lap, book in hand, in storytelling mode-a calm and steady presence whose insight was keen and whose counsel could always be trusted. Our lovely Jan will be in our hearts forever. For information or to send an on-line condolence, email: nsfs@wi.rr.com Service & Reception InfoWe will
