“Jan was a great and interesting teacher. She was an awesome photographer and taught me and my classmates many things about photography, film, and the photography processes. She will always be remembered for her wit and candid criticism. Sad to hear that the world lost a great photographer and teacher.”

“I was a neighbor of Jan's for many years and attended lots of her famous parties. However, I did not know until now that she had died and that makes me sad.”
