“ Jane- Your Mom was such a special lady! And she was a true lady. You must miss her terribly. I am so sorry for your loss. White Hydrangeas always make me think of her. ❤️ The story you told about the language barrier between her southern accent and her Mother in law's accent makes me smile to this day!!

“ Dear Jane and Family, I was so sad to learn yesterday of your mom's death. "Susie" was someone I LOVED to visit when I was growing up on Hollywood Avenue. She was warm and welcoming, and always had a treat (homemade, of course!) for us kids. I worked for a bit at Roberta Boutique as a teen, and Susie was a wonderful boss! I am grateful that I had the chance to visit with her over the years, when Mom and Dad visited WFB in the summer. I treasure my many precious memories of her. My sincere condolences to you. love, “ Susie left her mark on all she met. She was never without a listening ear and always stayed interested in the lives around her. She was pure class and her smile lit up a room. I had great admiration for her and wish I could have given her one more great hug. Her pride in Jane and Jane's children was apparent each time they were together.

“ Janie & family, We were saddened to hear of Aunt Jeannette's passing. What a tremendous lady who had a wonderful influence on all that she met. Scripture tells us that the two greatest commandments are to love God and to love other people.....your mom was the very best at this. Prayers and blessings to you during this time.
