

Josephine Thomas Pulver "Jo"

December 17, 2010

85, long- time resident of Shorewood, died Friday, 17 December 2010 at Bradford Terrace, Milwaukee. In addition to her friends, she is mourned by her four children and their families: Ann, her husband Francesco Siravo and their children Chiara and Julian of Rome, Italy; Clarke, his wife Jorian Clarke, his son Nicolas and their daughter Takota of Milwaukee; Alexander and his wife Melissa, his daughter Mazari and their sons Tristan and Aaron of Reno, NV; and Thalia, her husband David Mendez and their daughters Katie and Nina of Shorewood. For almost 30 years, Jo Pulver was an advisor in the UWM School of Fine Arts. She loved all of the arts and her work, and was devoted to the students, continuing part-time for two years after she retired in 1995. For information or to send an on-line condolence, email: nsfs@wi.rr.com

Service & Reception InfoThe family will receive friends Monday, 20 December, from 4 to 7 at Northshore Funeral Services, 3601 N. Oakland Ave., Shorewood. Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Tuesday, 21 December, at 10:30 am at Three Holy Women Parish, Holy Rosary Church, 2011 N. Oakland Ave., Milwaukee. The family requests that expressions of sympathy take the form of contributions to UWM Foundation, 1440 E. North Ave, Milwaukee WI 53202, for the Dean's Scholarship Fund, Peck School of the Arts.