

Maxine D. Giaimo

June 3, 2012

Entered God's loving arms on Sunday, June 3, 2012, and was reunited with her beloved late husband, Anthony J. Giaimo, Sr. Age 87 yrs. Born to Henry Stortz and Anna M. Frances on July 31, 1924 in Fredericktown, Missouri. Loving mother of Marie V. (James J.) Hennes and Anthony J. (Colleen) Giaimo, Jr. Devoted and adoring grandmother of John A. (Wendy Pero), Debra A. (Mark Mileske), Robert C. (Natalie Cox) Hennes, and Mark A. (Jenny), Andrew C., and Christiana C. (Troy Thomas) Giaimo. Cherished great-grandmother of Derek and Danielle Hennes, Samantha Hennes, and Will Pero; and, Dravin, Mara, and Caleb Thomas. Dear sister of Henry (Nancy Dionne) of Universal City, TX. Preceded in death by her parents and sisters and brothers-in-law, Marie (Joe)Dale, Baby Margariette, and Lois (Spike) Hood. Proud and loving owner of ""Harry Potter"", her Shit-zu puppy. Also, cherished by many relatives and friends. Maxine was employed by the City of Milwaukee as a school crossing guard for Hartford Avenue School (Corner of Hartford and Maryland Ave) for 20 years (1959-1980's). She also served many years as the fund raiser for Holy Rosary's Church festival ""to help raise monies to feed the poor."" She enjoyed the part-time employment at Community Roofing, Inc. and UWM-Milwaukee. Her primary focus was caring for her husband and family, organizing and planning family picnics/parties and playing with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. ""Special Thanks"" to the doctors and nursing staff at Froedtert Hospital, Horizon Home Care and Hospice, and St. Anne's Salvatorian Campus and St. Camillus Skilled

Nursing/Hospice facility. Your compassionate care and dedication will never be forgotten. Service & Reception InfoVisitation at Three Holy Women Catholic Parish - Holy Rosary Church, 2011 N. Oakland Ave., Milwaukee, WI on June 7th from 2-4:00 PM. Mass of Christian Burial at 4:00 PM following the wake. Reverend Timothy L. Kitzke, Pastor, officiating. In lieu of flowers, memorials appreciated to an educational fund for Maxine's great-grandchildren (specifically Derek, Danielle and Samantha Hennes and Will Pero-Hennes), or to Three Holy Women Parish, or the American Heart Association. Interment: Union Grove Veteran's Cemetery. Union Grove, Wisconsin