“ I so enjoyed working with Patty! She loved being a lawyer more than anyone I know. That enthusiasm was infectious. She spoke plainly and from her heart at all times. I loved her sense of humor. Patty was a hard worker and a kind soul. Her passing saddens me deeply. We need more lawyers like her. Also, her family members should know, if they don't already, that she LOVED being from a big family and always spoke so fondly of you all!! Good bless her and you as you grieve the passing of this beautiful soul.

“ I would like to express my condolences to Patricia Brown's family. In 2014, I was pursuing a paralegal certificate at MATC, and I took a Wills and Probate course, and a family law course with Patty Brown. Due to a visual impairment, some assignments were more challenging or took me longer to complete, but Patty's words of compassion and encouragement motivated me to keep going. I still think about her often in my current job. I could tell by the way she spoke about her law practice that she viewed her work not as just a profession, but a higher calling.

“ Patty was the best friend. She was accepting, kind, generous, thoughtful and just wonderful. Whenever she left West Virginia, we always said "we just love having Patty visit ". She always cooked and brought thoughtful little things and was so easy to travel with....we had so many plans....how I will miss her. Part of her lives in West Virginia where she is so beloved. I know that Patty is at peace and with Christ. I am praying for each of you, her family meant everything to her, that God grace you with His peace which passes understanding. God will help us and our memories of sweet Patty will comfort us all.

“ Patty it was a pleasure knowing you and doing business with you . You made me a better person just knowing you. My heart is wounded knowing someone like you aren't around to enjoy your wisdom, smile, and knowledge .

“ Dear Cousins, Patty has been in my thoughts and prayers all these days of her journey to Heaven. I believe Patty is with God and with our dear loved ones who have gone before us. I pray to Patty now to give us-her family and friends-just some of the courage and faith to say goodbye, as Patty had when she wiggled her toes to say YES to God's invitation Home.
