

Ray C. Derpinghaus

January 3, 2021

Ray C. Derpinghaus, 69, of Shorewood, shuffled off this mortal coil Sunday, January 3rd after a brief cardiac illness. Beloved husband and true partner of Susan Forbes. Unconditionally loving father of Thomas (Rosa de Acosta) and Peter (Erica) Derpinghaus. Smitten "Baba" of Yago, Carolina, Luther Ray, George, and Oscar Derpinghaus. Dear big brother of Anne (Sam) Miller. Also, survived by his lively Forbes in-laws, nieces and nephew.

Ray loved to travel; whether getting lost in Marrakech, walking the Camino in Spain or wandering the streets of Hong Kong, he was up for anything. His curiosity about almost everything was infectious. He loved Shakespeare, Monty Python and a bourbon Manhattan, but above all else his "perfect" family.

Ray's memorial celebration will be deferred until everyone is vaccinated. Donations if desired to American Players Theatre, Spring Green, WI. Our deepest gratitude to the staff of the CVICU at Froedtert hospital.

Tribute Wall

AS

“ I just found out tonight about Ray's passing. It has truly sadden me. Ray and I worked together at Walgreens for many years. He was a very nice, caring and humorous person. Rest In Peace my friend.
Angela Smith

Angela Smith - December 15, 2022 at 12:00 AM

TF

“ Ray was a beautifully caring and generous neighbor. May your memory be a blessing.

The Jacobsohn Family - January 09, 2021 at 12:00 AM