

Robert A. Holzauer

November 29, 2011

Born to Eternal Life on Nov. 29, 2011, age 92 yrs. Resident of Shorewood. Loving father of Kurt Holzauer, Anne (Jack) Stewart, Peter Holzauer, Margaret "Meg" (Mike Slawnikowski) Holzauer and the late Sarah Holzauer. Proud grandfather of Alex and Chloe Stewart, Dustin Holzauer, Hannah Scott, Ian Scott and the late Johnny Ace Baron. Further survived by other relatives and many friends. Bob was a psychiatric social worker with a Masters from UW-Wisconsin. A Professor at UW-Milwaukee in the School of Social Welfare and Assistant Professor in Sociology at Marquette University. Bob had also studied with the New York School for Social Research and Child Care courses in the Chicago Institute of Psychoanalysis. His specialty in dual diagnosis led him to head numerous counseling programs and his own private practice for emotionally disturbed children, delinquent youth and AODA interventions. His ability to relate and connect with people made him a constant magnet for advice and counsel. He was not a man of convention and delighted in finding new ideas and therapies for his clients. Bob enjoyed traveling and was in Pattaya, Thailand his home away from home as recently as September. He championed many causes which included The Milwaukee Peace Action Center and The Wisconsin Humane Society. He enjoyed the arts especially theatre and classical music. He loved books and was an insatiable reader. He was a formidable partner in Balderdash, Trivia and Scrabble. You will be ever missed for your wit, sarcasm and humor. Thank you to the staff at Horizon Hospice for the incredible care and comfort. Thank you to all the wonderful family and friends that eased his journey.
