

Ronald Jay Helstern "Peanut"

February 16, 1962 - January 11, 2025

Born to Life February 16, 1962. Born to Eternal Life January 11, 2025. Age 62 years. Residence West Milwaukee, WI. Proceeded in death by his mom, Carol Mae Patchin and wife, Hope E. Helstern (nee Kraft). He is survived by his brother, Bob (Jen) Helstern, sister, Traci Cramer and brother, Jimmy (Katie) Gibson; daughter, Kymm (Tim) McCain, son, Bubba Rose, grandchildren RJ, Zoe (Alex) and Payne, great grandchildren, Hailee and his special little Sofia.

Ron was rough and tumble on the outside, but a man with a true heart of gold. He loved his family with all that he had. His true love and devotion for his wife, from the time they said "I do", until he was reunited with her in Heaven only grew stronger.

He loved and cared for his mother until her passing, loved his kids, his grandchildren, two great granddaughters and always remained a wonderful friend and sibling to his brothers and sister. In fact, he loved his family so much, he passed holding a picture of his great-granddaughter Sofia and staring at a photo of him and his wife and their beautiful dog Gunner. He always had more than enough love for all and was there for anyone and anything! He leaves a lasting legacy!

“ I had tickets to the Scorpions in 2012 but could not go because I just had back surgery and was immobile so I gave Ron one and he bought me a shirt without asking . He also helped me work on my first home. I got some other stories but I cannot tell so I don't incriminate myself. Love ya brother 🙌❤️
