

Sarah Elizabeth Frank

August 29, 2017

In Loving Memory of Sarah Elizabeth Frank Born to Life April 18th, 1969 Born to Eternal Life August 29th, 2017 (nee Flint) age 48, of Whitefish Bay. Passed peacefully on August 29th, 2017. Loving wife of Spencer Frank. Adoring mother of Bennett, Chase and Griffin Frank. Beloved daughter of James P. and Barbara Flint and Barbara K. (the late Wayne J.) Frank. Dear sister of Susan (Brad) Wigdale and Jim Flint. Sarah was preceded in death by her beloved grandparents, Marjorie Faulkner (Moose), Lloyd Moose, Jean and Kenneth Flint. She is further survived by other relatives and many friends. Sarah had an extraordinary zest for life. Her big smile lit up a room and she radiated positive energy wherever she went. She was kind, smart, loving, fun, courageous, and compassionate. As a mother of three boys, she was simply the best. She encouraged her kids to do their best, be curious, learn everyday, have fun, follow their arrow, make something amazing out of their lives, and never stop smiling. Sarah radiated beauty, always saw beauty in others, and designed beauty into the world around her. Sarah's positive outlook on life, strong will to live everyday, and hope for tomorrow was inspiring to all who knew her. Sarah lived with passion, courage, perseverance, and hope. She was our hero. All that is real and tangible is found in the present. Now is where we need to put our energy and count our blessings. All we have is this second, and a choice in how we live it. Thank you to our amazing family and friends for your prayers, words, meals, gifts, time, love and friendship. In lieu of flowers, memorials to Immanuel Presbyterian Church for all the great work

“ Wow. What a beautiful tribute. Thank you for this. My most cherished memory of Sarah has got to be drinking Austin Powers Shagadelic shaker cocktails in the sacristy of her church under the roaring Air Show. Her hair was bobbed short and flipped up, which was so sassy and so Sarah. She clipped on her veil, handed her florist a giant scissors and told him to start cutting. There was never another bride who was so cool or so chill.
