“ Happy New Year, Shim my love. It has been 32 years since I started a new year without you, 34 years since I started a new year without knowing you. I don't know what the year holds for me. I do know that you will be with me, in my heart my soul, my mind, each step of the way. I hope I continue to make you proud as I move through this year, one day at a time. I continue to love you and miss you more each day. I know we will reunite some time in the future. Until then, my love.

“ Good morning Shim my love, Today is 4 months since you crossed over from this world to the next. I miss having you physically with me. I'm grateful for you looking after me and continuing to take care of me. I hope you are proud of how I am moving forward one day at a time. I love you and will do my best to keep living with you in my heart and memories. I will continue to share with you all my thoughts and experiences. I will always reach to you for strength. I love and miss you. Please continue to watch over me. I love you, my Shim Marie.

“ Shim, My Love,I have not seen or held you in the flesh for 2 months. I know you are with me and thank you for continuing to watch over me and help me get through all the challenges I am facing. I hope you are okay with the memorial celebration with family and friends I arranged. I wanted to honor you as best as I could. I know you witnessed all the help and support I received from family and friends. I hope I continue to make you proud. I love and miss you so much.

“ I never had the blessing to meet Shim. I knew of her through an old college buddy, Toni. I came to care for Shim because of Toni's love and I know she will be missed.

“ I didn't get to meet her in person we met through Facebook. We would have early morning coffee together while chatting on the phone. We talked about all kinds of things . She was a amazing woman and friend. I know when I have my first cup of coffee in the morning she's have a cup right along with me . Rest in peace Shim Marie. Love your friend Heidi
