

Vincent James Cataldi

November 15, 2016

Born April 14, 1954, in Niskayuna, NY, entered into eternal life November 15, 2016. Vince studied economics at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, taking a double gap year before they were invented, traveling around the world, studying the economies and cultures of exotic peoples first hand. Vince was an explorer, adventurer, entrepreneur, philosopher, lecturer, and fighter for justice for the marginalized. Vince joins his parents, Horace and Phyllis (nee Kortendick) Cataldi, and brother John Cataldi, and leaves behind sisters Marifrances Cataldi (Marc Frank), Margaret (nee Cataldi) Bercovitz (Ron Bercovitz), Lisa Orser-Cataldi (Richard Orser), and brother, James Cataldi (Nina Das), as well as nephews and nieces Timothy Krukowski, Christopher Cataldi, Jennifer (nee Frank) Battiste, Rebecca Frank, Benjamin Bercovitz, Brian Orser, and Katherine Bercovitz, grand-niece Morgan Sommers, grand-nephews Tyrion Battiste and Arek Krukowski, as well as many cousins and friends throughout the world. Vince believed in the connectivity of all things in Nature, loved jazz music and making puns. He was great at telling a good joke! He will be remembered for his infectious laugh and his fierce loyalty as a friend and family member. Service & Reception InfoPlease join Vince's family as they celebrate his life on Friday Dec 16th after 10:00 AM at Northshore Funeral Service Chapel followed by a Service of Remembrance at 11:00 AM. Inurnment Holy Cross Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

DH

“ God bless Vince. Who could forget that carrot-topped punster? Love and prayers. He's in a good place. Fondly, and family.

Doria Haering - December 14, 2016 at 12:00 AM