

Werner Jacob Froehling

September 16, 1921 - December 18, 2018

Passed away peacefully December 18, 2018 at the age of 97. Born in Mayen, Germany September 16, 1921 to Leopold and Frieda (Kempenich) Froehling. He is survived by a cousin, Ms Edith Kahn. Escaped the holocaust with his parents. Forced to lease their beautiful home in Mayen. Walked away as if going to a picnic. Wearing layers of clothes. Slept three nights in the Black Forest. Got to Belgium and found shelter there, but as Hitler advanced, had to leave for America. Rosel and Herman Kahn found sponsors for them in Milwaukee. Werner enlisted in the US Army, saw action and was an interpreter in Germany, also saw action in the Philippines. He traveled the world in the service. He is the retired owner of Werner's Menswear. He would tailor suits as the customer waited, always a free tie with the suits. He loved his south side customers, said they all wore clean white socks and paid their bills... some of his best suits are buried in St. Adalbert's Cemetery. His friends were his family: Mr. Mayer- ""Mayer"" - Krom Clothing Store, Mr. Claire and Fannie Krom and Family, Barney from Fran Ellen Dinette, Paul from Golden Dragon Restaurant ,Dr. Michael Chobanian DD S and son, Leo and Family - Milwaukee, Dr. Susan Chobanian MD and family - Los Angeles CA, Dr. Emil Davaric MD and family, Mrs. Mary Grundle and family, Ron Schneider and family - Leon's Custard, Nick and June (Jackie) Mazo - Mazo's Restaurant, Jim Sajdak and family - Stan's Bootery, Richard and Dorothy Derse and family, Tom, Audrey and Brian Konkell, Tom and Gus Amann - Amann's Cocktail Lounge, Shaleigh Fitzpatrick, Nikola and Gordona Prijic and family, neighbors - Sasa and Kyoung Aecvho. Thanks to life-long doctors - Dr. V.K. Roa, MD, Dr. Lingham Kumar, MD, Dr. Wegelewski, MD, Dr. Tector, MD, Dr. Matt Johnson, MD. Thanks to entire staff 4th fkoor skilled nursing at East Castle Place. Thanks to hospice doctors and nurses St. Luke's Garden Tower - 12th floor. Thanks to long time friend and caregiver Mary Jo Miller. Per Werner's Wishes - private graveside services were held December 23, 2018 at Greenwood Cemetery, Milwaukee.

Tribute Wall

DW

“ My sincere condolences. Mr. Werner was a wonderful neighbor and family friend, I have missed seeing him and Mary Jo during their walks around the neighborhood. God bless.

Dawn M Wabiszewski - March 15, 2019 at 12:00 AM